CAMP RULES AND POLICIES

Camp Rules

Saint Mary’s College has been offering fine arts camps for over 30 years. Each year the College strives to provide a positive and enriching experience for campers. Directors, staff members, instructors, and counselors adhere to a strict set of behavioral standards. Campers are expected to conduct themselves in a similar fashion and show respect toward the College and the College mission.

Fine Arts campers are expected to:

- Respect fellow campers and staff members
- Respect other campers’ personal property
- Respect College property
- Keep rooms clean and orderly
- Campers are not permitted to leave their groups or the Saint Mary’s campus without staff supervision

Consequences

- Campers will receive a verbal reprimand or warning from the Camp Director for minor infractions.
- Serious infractions (e.g., smoking, fighting, use of abusive language, etc.) will result in a verbal warning and parents/guardians will be notified by the Camp Director.
- Grounds for immediate dismissal include use of alcohol or drugs, activating fire alarms, theft, vandalism, or the use of any item that endangers an individual or College property.
Camp Policies

Visiting
Saint Mary’s Fine Arts Camp obeys a “No Visiting” policy except in the event of an emergency. In the event the camper must be taken off campus, the Camp Director must be notified as soon as possible. All campers must have approval from a staff member before leaving the campus. Only those named on the Release Form will be permitted to pick up a camper. A Release Form is required for each camper. For security reasons, parents/guardians are only allowed on the floors in the residence hall during check-in and check-out times.

Phone Policy
The Fine Arts camp has a no phone policy for all campers. Cell phones are not permitted at camp. If cell phones are found, they will be confiscated until the end of the week.

Because this may be the first time away from home, some campers may experience separation anxiety. The staff, counselors, and instructors are dedicated to making this period of adjustment as comfortable as possible for everyone involved. This policy has been established for the welfare of the entire camp program. Our goal is to have the camper emerge from this week with a sense of accomplishment and pride. It has been our experience that this process is best accomplished with no phone contact from home.

Emergency messages will be taken at the Summer Camp Office (574) 284-4778 from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. After 5 p.m., emergency messages will be taken at the Holy Cross Hall Front Desk (574) 284-4300. Telephone messages will be returned by the Director/Assistant Director.

Reminder: Please remember that Indiana is on Eastern Time (one hour ahead of Chicago).

Performance Class

Performance Class is a daily 90-minute class in which campers focus on a specific fine arts project. During the Sunday orientation session, every camper will be given an opportunity to request music, dance, theatre, creative writing, or art as their selection for the performing arts class. While efforts are made to give each camper her preferred selection, not every camper gets her first choice due to limited class space.

On Friday at 3:00 p.m., campers will gather in O’Laughlin Auditorium to share the special project their group has been preparing all week. This event is open to family members. Doors will open at 2:30 p.m. for seating. For those attending this event, please park your vehicles in the Regina Hall parking lot. (Please note: The Fine Arts Camp will not be videotaping this performance.)
Theme Days
